EIGHT PERCENT PROMMISSORY NOTE

When an individual lends money to the "8% PROMISSORY NOTE", that individual is lending money to M. Burton Marshall.

Mr. Marshall issues to the lender a promissory note for the amount of the loan at eight percent (8%) per annum. These funds can accumulate interest, or some investors prefer a periodic check until the loan is paid in full.

For an accumulation plan, the interest is updated every time a payment is made, a deposit is made, a distribution is taken, or you ask for the interest to be brought up-to-date. When monthly payments are made the interest is automatically updated at that time.

Also, there are some individuals who prefer to receive a check monthly for the interest earned, leaving the principal intact.

Funds can be added to the promissory note at any time. Thirty (30) days notice is required for withdrawal. There is no penalty for early withdrawal.

If you would like to see what your money is being used for and would like to tour current construction projects, please let us know.

These funds are used primarily to purchase property; refurbish rental houses; and pay normal and ordinary expenses of rental property such as repairs, maintenance, utilities, debt service, insurance, real estate taxes, etc., in the Hamilton, New York area. All properties are within 6 miles of Burt's office.

If you have any further questions, please call Burt.

Dear Note Holder:

We are providing this update along with the payment of 1/2 of 1% of the principal balance of your note.

Some of our note holders have requested clarification of how we have calculated the principal against which the payment is being made. For purposes of this payment, we have calculated the principal balance as of the date of your last transaction. For instance, if the last time you received a payment was on June 30, 2021, your principal will have been calculated as of that date, and the enclosed payment represents 1/2 of 1% of that amount.

Also, your notes continue to accrue interest even though regular payments have been interrupted.

I am pleased to inform you that I have been released from the hospital and I am recuperating at home. While I will be slowly ramping up my workload, it will be quite some time before I am back in the office full time.

Currently I am working on updating the cash flow projections from each of my businesses so that a repayment program can be developed and shared with all of you. Toward that goal, we continue our efforts to solicit participation on a committee of note holders. We will be contacting several of the note holders with the largest note amounts within the next several days.

As you have previously been advised, our attorneys at Barclay Damon LLP have established a designated email account to field inquiries regarding this situation. We encourage you to continue to use this email account for any questions or comments you may have:

Bmarshallinfo@barclaydamon.com

On the back of this letter, you will find a statement of your account reflecting the enclosed payment.

Jeff Dove of Barclay Damon LLP will continue to act as the contact person for all questions and concerns regarding promissory notes and will be establishing a committee of note holders in the upcoming days.

Thank you,

Burt Marshall

The most recent Note transaction date was 1/9/2023 with a balance of $ 6930.69. This is the amount used to start figuring the Disbursements.

Some of our note holders have requested clarification of how we have calculated the principal against which the payment is being made. For purposes of this payment, we have calculated the principal balance as of the date of your last transaction. For instance, if the last time you received a payment was on June 30, 2021, your principal will have been calculated as of that date, and the enclosed payment represents 1/2 of 1% of that amount.

Also, your notes continue to accrue interest even though regular payments have been interrupted.

I am pleased to inform you that I have been released from the hospital and I am recuperating at home. While I will be slowly ramping up my workload, it will be quite some time before I am back in the office full time.

Currently I am working on updating the cash flow projections from each of my businesses so that a repayment program can be developed and shared with all of you. Toward that goal, we continue our efforts to solicit participation on a committee of note holders. We will be contacting several of the note holders with the largest note amounts within the next several days.

As you have previously been advised, our attorneys at Barclay Damon LLP have established a designated email account to field inquiries regarding this situation. We encourage you to continue to use this email account for any questions or comments you may have:

Bmarshallinfo@barclaydamon.com

On the back of this letter, you will find a statement of your account reflecting the enclosed payment.

Jeff Dove of Barclay Damon LLP will continue to act as the contact person for all questions and concerns regarding promissory notes and will be establishing a committee of note holders in the upcoming days.

Thank you,

Burt Marshall
